Sentier de ronde de la forêt de Saint-Antoine

This path set of themes set up by the National office of the Forests, will make you discover part of the National forest of Saint-Antoine which covers a surface of 2700 hectares. It has the privilege to shelter one of the last populations of Capercaillie of the massif vosgien.

This path will tell you the history of this apparently wild forest and whose destiny is however related to the human activities since several generations. Good shoes are recommended. Count approximately 2 hours by taking your time.

- 1 Welcome on the path of round of the National forest of Saint-Antoine.
- 2 The Giant Fir tree: Planted under the reign of Louis XV.
- 3 Forest against pastures: Long story of husbandries and the conflicts of uses.
- 4 A forest management which evolves/moves: The Middle Ages at our days.
- 5 Sawing: An omnipresent activity.
- 6 The secret brotherhood of the coalmen.
- 7 Near the refuge of the Old Hut: Industries with the conquest of the forest.

Le Rahin

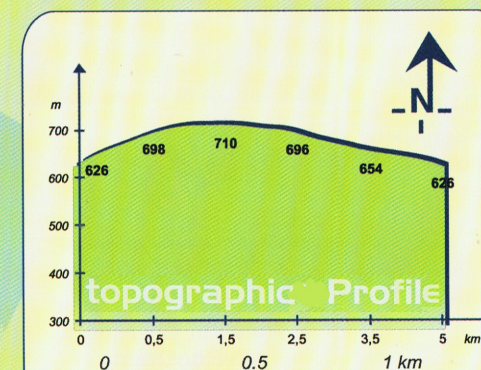

- 8 The mine of the Piron Bridge:
One of the oldest mines of the valley.

This path set of themes makes following with a study of the historian Emmanuel GARNIER. Its reference book on the National forest of Saint-Anthony is available to the Tourist office Rahin and Chérimont at the price of 11,50 €.
